Starting Stories: 5 Great Beginning Strategies The beginning of a story sets the tone for everything that will happen next. An opener is like an appetizer, offering a tasty morsel of what's to come. When you start to write a story, you might not know where it is heading. That's okay. Play with possibilities! Try one or more of these strategies.

This Book is Sad is not only a book you can READ, this is a book that has FEELINGS. Don't be surprised if you're asked to tickle a page, or clap hands with the pages to make it smile. It's true! Normal rules don't apply to This Book. So turn each page and be ready for anything! This Book is Sad. is a part of a broader series of interactive conversation books. Easy reading pages are written for those who are just learning, and for those who are reluctant to read. The conversation between the author and reader creates a bond that makes the reader feel important, noticed, and connected to the story. The THIS BOOK series breaks all the rules by instructing the reader to use the book as a tool for "outside the book" action items such as singing, clapping, or measuring. These action items are strategically used to engage new types of readers who may enjoy seeing a book as not only something to read, but as something to physically play with as well. THIS BOOK series is part of the collection of new 21st century stories called "The Road to 1000 stories" Books in the THIS BOOK series include: #300 - Can You Turn This Book Into A Song? #301 - Are You Too Big For This Book? #302 - This Book is Sad. #303 - Quick! Grab This Book and RUN! #304 - Can This Book Win a Football Game? #305 - Can This Book Fly? #306 - Can You Read This Book Backwards? & More to Come! Burning Center, Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world, a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally. The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges-economic disparity, war and terrorism, diaspora, ecological threat, health crisis, religious diversity, and so on-posed by our highly globalized world. It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily. Conversely, it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air/spirit of change to blow in and out. While there is much rhetoric about change, the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual. This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats. In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village, walls of division and exclusion are rising, hearts are constricting, and moral imagination shrinking. In response to this context, Burning Center, Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church: burning center and porous borders, wall-buster and bridge-builder, translocal (g)local, mending-healer, radical hospitality, community of the earth-spirit, household of life abundant, dialogians of life, and community of hope. In Burning Center, Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace!
