life that they can look back on in the future. A perfect fill-in-and-keep first record to celebrate the everyday things about every child.

Learning is more than textbooks and tests. It is a living, active thing, and it is happening all of the time. The problem is capturing it and recording it so that it counts. The Record Book makes that seem simple! With these pages you will:

- Have a record for authorities
- Be able to accurately produce high school transcripts
- Have a bank of memories both for sentimental and practical use later on.

Each page includes places to write down the activity, the time spent, the children who were involved, and the education area(s) covered. There is also a place for notes, such as the attitude of the children, the circumstances of the day, or even some directions for the next day. Also included are:

- Basic instructions and a brief explanation of the philosophy behind the book. -Pages of encouraging quotes intermixed with the recording pages. It is our hope this tool will help you gain more peace and satisfaction as you homeschool your children.

Every page in this exciting, colorful book invites older brothers and sisters to become fully involved in their baby's first year. Children can draw pictures of baby, paste in a lock of hair, and record baby's major accomplishments throughout the year. Full-color illustrations are adapted from Le Journal de Bebe, published in Paris in 1914.
