In California, a lease exists whenever there is an oral or written agreement to exchange rent for inhabiting a property. According to California law ( CA Civil Code 1940-1954.05 ), under a lease, tenants have certain rights such as the right to a habitable dwelling, due process for evictions, and more. Landlords also have rights, such as the right to collect rent and to collect for property damages that exceed normal wear and tear.

The go-to survival guide for California tenantsCalifornia tenants have many rights, especially those lucky enough to have rent control. But knowing and enforcing these rights can be difficult. Fortunately, California Tenants' Rights, the leading tenant guide for more than 45 years, provides all the information and key forms tenants need to: find a good rental in a competitive market understand the rules regarding service and support animals deal with a problem roommate or noisy neighbor stop landlord intrusions of privacy get the landlord to make repairs or deal with mold or bedbugs fight illegal discrimination, harassment, or retaliation break a lease with minimal liability respond to a late rent or termination notice get as much of the deposit back as possible, and fight an eviction, with line-by-line instructions on completing required forms. The 22nd edition includes updated information on state eviction rules and forms, local rent control ordinances, and tenant rights to sublet on Airbnb.

All tenants have legal rights; however, most do not know what these specific rights are. Tenants' Rights in California is a practical manual explaining in simple language how to enforce and protect the legal rights of tenants in California.
