Your project went off without a hitch--but somebody else got the credit...You averted a crisis brilliantly--but no one noticed...You came to the meeting with a sensational idea--but it was ignored until someone else said the same thing... HOW CAN YOU GET CREDIT & GET AHEAD? In her extraordinary international bestseller, You Just Don't Understand, Deborah Tannen transformed forever the way we look at intimate relationships between women and men. Now she turns her keen ear and observant eye toward the workplace--where the ways in which men and women communicate can determine who gets heard, who gets ahead, and what gets done. An instant classic, Talking From 9 to 5 brilliantly explains women's and men's conversational rituals--and the language barriers we unintentionally erect in the business world. It is a unique and invaluable guide to recognizing the verbal power games and miscommunications that cause good work to be underappreciated or go unnoticed--an essential tool for promoting more positive and productive professional relationships among men and women.

"In English for meetings, starting with "What makes a good meeting?", the learner is led throught the process of meetings like opening, opinion giving, interruptions, asking questions and making decisions; finally there are two panels on cross cultural tips and golden rules."--Back flap.

Clear, simple explanations of grammar points appropriate for lower-level learners. Straightforward practice activities based on accuracy. Authentic source material, providing contexts relevant to adult professional learners' needs. Short end-of-unit sections allowing students to personalise key grammar. Progress tests.
