Discover the peace found in a radically simpler life using this guided journal featuring prompts based on the joyful, liberating lessons shared by New York Times bestselling author Jen Hatmaker in Simple and Free: 7 Experiments Against Excess. In Simple and Free, first published as 7, Jen Hatmaker described her reckoning with excess through a social experiment, which turned into a spiritual movement. Now, in Simple and Free: Guided Journal, Hatmaker invites readers to examine their own seven areas of excess--from stress to spending to social media--and identify personal practices toward creating a life of "enough." It's one thing to imagine a better story; it's another thing to live one. This guided journal helps readers simplify the excess in their lives in practice, not just wishful thinking. Simple and Free: Guided Journal is a tool to help readers stay attentive, inspect their tendencies thoughtfully, and combat the modern-day diseases of greed, materialism, and overindulgence. It invites readers to deeply explore seven areas of excess: food, clothes, spending, media, possessions, waste, and stress--and create pathways towards a gentler, simpler life.

This is a Journal comprising papers written by the lecturers in the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing) Seminary located at Westhill Church, Inverness, Scotland. These have been prepared from the perspective of the Historic Reformed Protestant Faith to which the Seminary and its lecturers are committed. The purpose of the Seminary is to maintain the principles of the Reformation faith in doctrine, worship, church government and discipline. The Journal is intended to provide stimulating and challenging material which will advance a greater understanding of the Biblical evangelical faith and encourage the practice of godliness. It is aimed at students in theology, preachers and pastors as well as interested lay persons. The desire is for faithfulness to Jesus Christ in every area of biblical, theological and historical studies and church life today.

This is the third annual Journal produced by the Seminary of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing) based in Inverness. It contains papers by the current lecturers together with an historic lecture on 'The Pace of New Testament Exegesis in Theological Study' delivered at the opening of the Free Church College Session in 1906.

This is the fourth annual Journal of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing) Seminary based in Inverness. The lecturers have produced articles on a variety of topics relating to biblical doctrine, practical theology, church history and biblical language. In this volume a piece has also been included from 19th century Free Church Professor, George Smeaton (1814-1889).

In this second annual volume of the Journal of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing) Seminary in Inverness, the lecturers have again provided articles on a variety of theological, exegetical and historical topics relating to their own disciplines. In this volume a piece has been included from 19th century Free Church Professor, George Smeaton (1814-1889) formerly published in the Christian Treasury in 1872.

This is the fifth annual Journal of the Seminary of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing). It
