Paul Polman reshaped Unilever, FW de Klerk's involvement in the Global Leadership Foundation and Jan Peter Balkenende put innovation at the heart of his programme as Prime Minister of The Netherlands. We also examine the idea of the circular economy, reveal how a family firm can survive and prosper in the era of multinational giants, and show how innovative projects have transformed healthcare in the United States and The Netherlands. Innovation is the lifeblood of modern society. We offer a wide range of examples of how innovation has shaped our world, from technology radical dualism, a destructive inclination to interpret authoritative texts, paranoid thinking, and an apocalyptic world view.

For some people, the mention of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, or Mormons in short, conjure images of gray-bearded, hardy, rifle-wielding men from Utah, contrasting with their indefatigable, smart-looking, lively missionaries making rounds with a native partner anywhere else in the world at any time. Who would think ill of such people? On the other hand, world media is littered with some pocket of news concerning raids of some far-flung, mysterious Mormon factions in some curious parts of the United States of America. Who are these people? Are we safe and;ultimately;wise to believe and make brothers of them? That, and other things besides, is what Basic Mind-Sets in Evangelizing Mormons Evangelism will try to answer for us.
