Have you been thinking about starting a freight brokerage business or you are simply curious about this fantastic business opportunity? If the answer is yes, then keep listening... Freight brokers are capable of brokering profitable deals with people who are willing to ship bulky goods. While there are freight brokers who prefer going solo, having a freight brokerage business is a great way to earn a huge amount of money. A freight brokerage company arranges for the transportation of the freight and tracking of the load. Their main job is to make the lives of the clients easy by providing them with efficient and quality drivers and carriers who are reliable enough to carry a large amount of load, and in the meantime making a ton of money! There is, in fact, a large amount of profit when it comes to having a freight brokerage business. While there are many efficient trucking companies who prove to be consistent with their performances, there are a few bad ones out there which make local businesses and people wary of using such services. This proves to be highly beneficial for freight brokerage businesses, as they fulfill the requirements of shippers as well as carriers. This ensures that they are always in demand. Here's a preview of what you will learn: Differences between freight brokers, forwarders and agents Fascinating insights of the freight broker business history Simple steps to become a freight broker What are all the required forms, permits, and licenses and how to get them How to easily find your first customers Steps and advices to set up a profitable business since the beginning Tips and tricks to promote and market your freight brokerage business Want to know more? Become Part of a Champion Industry that Overpowers Even the Toughest Economic Crises. Take a minute of your time, and look around you. Notice the furniture, gadgets, books, and all the other stuff you have lying around your home or office. Chances are, the majority of those items came to you by truck. E-commerce has changed the way we buy and sell things, especially in the light of current global events. This, in turn, has created a huge, global demand for transport carriers, especially motor carriers. The trucking industry has been flourishing and growing for some time now, and it will continue to do so, according to a market research report from Technavio. They predict that the global market size will reach an impressive $41.47 billion by 2024. This extremely favorable forecast provides a fantastic opportunity for those who wish to become a part of this lucrative industry. Large trucking companies own

Freight Forwarder Business Startup How to Start, Run & Grow a Successful Freight Forwarding Business The global freight forwarding market has been seeing a steady growth of around 5% for last four years in a row now. This trend is expected to continue and grow bigger. With all the new trade deals like TPP (Trans-Pacific Partnership), TAP (Trans-Atlantic Partnership) and many other similar trade deals between countries are bringing the whole world into one marketplace. According to Transportation Intelligence, a leading logistics research firm, in 2013 the freight forwarding industry was at 129 Billion, but as of today, it has grown by another 16-20 billion more. This is an industry that in my opinion still in its infancy, with TPP, TAP and many other global trade agreements, the need for such services will grow higher every year. Another rapid growth I see in this business is from all the Amazon FBA(Fulfilled By Amazon) business owners, most of who buy their merchandise from China. Now Amazon never accepts merchandise directly from a foreign country, so each and every piece of merchandise has to come through a freight forwarder/broker. This way the merchandise can get relabeled and shipped to various Amazon

In this book, I shared some of the resources that are available for you to get started. If you are thinking about getting into this business, trust me when I say this, there is not a better time than now to get started. Do your research, get educated, get started. Good luck!

The world and it's economics is more global today than it was 10 years ago. Products and goods are being shipped and received from country to country more than ever before. In this global process one key person that is needed is a Freight Broker and his or her service. Freight Brokerage firms are more in demand now than ever before. My name is George A. Stewart, I am 43 years old, I worked 12 years as a store manager for Burger King Restaurant, a truly dead end job. Just like most jobs in the market today I used to put in plenty of hours that unfortunately, did not translate into money. I understand that everyone has bad days at work; for me it was not an ordinary occasional dissatisfaction but a genuine mismatch. Working for long hours and under constant stress was taking a toll on my health and to make matters worse I was earning $36,500 per year, which was barely enough to feed myself, my wife and three children. Most of the time, I felt like I was dangling from a cliff. My turning point was the day I met a certain customer in my restaurant who seemed to be doing very well despite the hard economic times the whole country was going through. After a little chitchat, I found out he was a freight broker and that he was earning a decent living while working a few hours. At that point I did not know anything about freight brokerage or that a profession like that even existed. I therefore decided to do some research about it and the more I learned the more my interest grew and within a matter of weeks I was completely hooked up. Before I knew it, I took time off work to begin my training in freight brokerage. After my training, I decided to quit my job at burger king and took up a job as a freight agent working under an established freight broker. My job included looking for new clients, taking orders and matching shippers with carriers. In one year or so I felt that I had enough experience and contacts to start my own firm. I then applied for the required licenses at FMCSA and started small. Starting my own firm was definitely not easy but I found it much better than working at burger king. My first client was a contact I had made from working as a freight agent. After a lot of hard work I finally started getting more clients, and in 6 months I could finally relax because my business had finally taken off. I was earning around $120,000 every year, which, I must confess, was really good for starters. Now that I can work for fewer hours per day, my stress level has gone down and health wise, I am on the road to recovery. I can take better care of my family and also spend a lot more time with them. In this book, I outlined every steps about How to become a successful Freight Broker that anyone can understand and follow.
