When it comes time for the three little wolves to go out into the world and build themselves a house, their mother warns them to beware the big bad pig. Detective Doggedly, a pair of cows, and a sheep who looks very familiar are all nearby each time three pigs get in trouble, but the big bad wolf is conspicuously absent.

The wolf gives his own outlandish version of what really happened when he tangled with the three little pigs.

"Little rig, little rig, let me come in!" "Not by the chrome on my chinny chin chin." "Then I'll crash and I'll bash and I'll smash your house in." When the three little rigs set out to build their own garages, each one thinks that his is going to be the strongest. But then the big bad wrecking ball comes to call and threatens to smash their new homes to smithereens. The brothers learn that it's only by bravery and teamwork that they can win the day. A comic sequel to the ugly truckling.

So, if you've ever wondered: Where did the Unicorn come from? How did Prince Charming really get past those roses to kiss Sleeping Beauty? What are the ingredients to make Seven League Boots? And How do you break witches' spells? Then find the answers while you read how Three Little Wolves undid witches' spells, used enchanted robins to make magic boots, outsmarted a selfish king and saved his castle from the big bad boar.
