magic in every tiny seed. And in this book, you become the magician. How? Press the seed into the ground, wiggle your fingers to add water, clap to bring the sun. And then . . .turn the page. What can grow from one tiny seed? Press, tap, wiggle, and jiggle to start the magic! Press the seed—don't be shy! Wiggle your fingers to add some water. Clap your hands to bring the sun. Wow! A beautiful flower!

"The watercolor illustrations are dramatic, colorful, and attractive. . . . Youngsters will enjoy learning about the marsupial . . . all within a moving tale filled with adventure." -- School Library Journal When a young male koala outgrows his mother's pouch, it's time to find a new home for himself, braving perils and adventures along the way. Rival koalas, fierce storms, and frightening snakes force Koala to keep moving until he finds a safe place to call his own. In this dramatic nonfiction account, two renowned Australian picture book creators bring us a surprising and authentic look at the ever-popular koala.

Two friends plant seeds in their community garden, then water, weed, wait and dream as the plants grow until they can be harvested. Includes facts about gardening and harvest festivals.

the thought-provoking parable presented as the seed contemplates her experiences and begins to understand the purpose for which she was created. The story's layers of meaning will, hopefully, entice readers to return again and again to the simplicity of its message: waiting for wisdom, learning what it means to 'grow' in faith, and understanding that everyone has a purpose in living. The book features illustrations by Sydney Durrett, an up-and-coming young artist who works out of her own studio, Durrett Designs, in Charlotte, North Carolina. Sydney's beautiful creations will make this book a treasure for any library!
